

“Worth The Wait” Curriculum Review,
Parent Night, CGMS Media Center
Tuesday, January 24th, 2017...5:00pm to 6:00 pm

Come learn about the “Worth the Wait” curriculum and how your student may benefit from the class. “Worth the Wait” is a medically accurate abstinence education program that provides students with age-appropriate information about:

- Essential Human Needs & Healthy Relationships with Family and Peers
- Puberty and Reproductive Anatomy
- Pregnancy, Sexually Transmitted Diseases, Sexual Abuse and Legal Issues
- The Physical, Financial and Emotional Benefits of Waiting
- Mastering Refusal Skills
- Media influences
- Avoiding Risky Behaviors and Planning for the Future

What students are saying about the class:

- “This class has helped me because now I know that it’s ok to say no even though you really love that person. To set boundaries and to make sure you make good decisions.”
- “How this class has helped is by helping me understand more of the consequences of having sex at a young age also it helped me know how to avoid sexual abuse.”
- “This class helped a lot because now I know what to do if I get in a sexual situation.”
- “It helped me because there was a lot I’ve learned and felt more comfortable talking to my parents.”
- “This class has helped me think about what my decisions in life should be and how they will affect me.”
- “It helped me to realize sex isn’t the most important thing.”
- “It made me a changed man and now I think before I do anything stupid.”

YOU...are the most powerful influence in your child’s life!

Don’t miss the opportunity to learn how Worth the Wait can spark important conversations with your student.
